

Candidate Statements
Four County Players Board of Directors
2023 election

Members may vote for not more than 3 candidates. If elected, the directors will serve a three-year term.

Candidates running for election:

David Merriman, incumbent

David first became involved in theater when he attended a show with his parents in Fayetteville, NC and has loved theater since. He is currently the Vice President of Business for Four County Players (4CP) and brings a business background to the position. He currently works in commercial insurance sales. As VP of Business, he serves as the Chair of the Finance Committee. David and his entire family have been actively involved at 4CP and continue to participate in shows as well as volunteer to help as needed. Most recently, he, his wife, and son appeared in 4CP's production of Elf: The Musical which played to sold out crowds. David wishes to continue serving on the Board and contributing to the theater's future.

Wendy Novicoff

Wendy is a former member of the Four County Players Board of Directors and served as Treasurer. She has been part of this organization for over 25 years. Wendy has been an integral part of more than 50 productions. She has appeared in shows onstage. She frequently serves as a producer for shows. Wendy continues to support many productions. Wendy looks at Four County as her family and home away from home. Wendy looks forward to the opportunity to again serve this great organization for the next three years.

Steven Reid

Steven is a program manager with Literacy Volunteers of America in Charlottesville, VA where he trains and supports volunteer tutors, provides professional development workshops, designs curriculums to support learners, and conducts intakes to assess new students. Steven has extensive experience in literacy and education. He has taught English as a second language and conducted many professional development workshops. Additionally, Steven was a high school drama teacher in Texas and a Theater Manager with the Lockhart Community Theater in Lockhart TX. He currently serves on the Programming Committee with Four County Players and has served as the lighting designer on some of 4CP's shows. Steven would be delighted to join the Board of Directors and continue his involvement with Four County Players.